And whilst you're in town, make sure you check out -

Nati FRIJ Community Art Workshops Series 2

Following on from the successful first series run in October, the Pitcha Makin Fellas are coming to town again to run art workshops with interested community members to design and decorate old fridges with images of local native flora inspired by Steffen Shultz's book Gariwerd Colours.

Come and hear about the work the Fellas create and learn a stamp making and print technique creating your own design to then apply to a fridge as your canvas. All welcome, wear old clothes!

What: Nati FRIJ Community Art Workshops Series 2

When: Sat 11th Dec 10am- 1pm & 2-5pm, Sun 12th Dec 10am -1pm

Where: Natimuk Primary School, 38 Old Noradjuha Rd, Natimuk

The fridges will then be displayed as an installation/trail Nati FRIJ - for the Nati Frinj Biennale in 2022. Participants will need to show proof of double vaccination against COVID 19.

Workshops are free but numbers are limited so please book via link -
